

DIAWL BACH or LITTLE DEVIL

This is a Welsh trout fly used all over Scotland and the British Isles. The person to blame for this little piece is Brian McManus. In our conversations and fishing, this fly always comes up. I thought it would be proper to show everyone what it is and how to tie it my way.

Hook: Wet fly 8-14 Brian uses Hayabusa hooks

Thread: Chestnut Brown or Black

Tail: Barbs of Brown Chicken Hackle

Rib: Red Flashabou

Body: Peacock Herl

Beard or False Hackle: Barbs of Brown Chicken Hackle

I start with the hook upside down so I can tie the beard in better.

The finished fly

Tie this in smaller sizes and go catch fish. Jerry Hopewell
